How long have you been attending Blainsport?

Do you trust Jesus as your personal savior? YES NO

What excites you about being a Life Group leader?

Do you already have strengths / experiences / training that will help you as a Life Group leader?

What training would you like to see that might equip you to lead a group?

What do you see as the purpose of Life Groups? (No right or wrong answer)

What questions or concerns do you have about leading a Life Group?

What would or does keep you inspired to serve as a Life Group leader?

What makes you feel appreciated (public recognition, thank you card, regular affirmation, etc.)?

Leadership Commitment:

- I confess that Jesus Christ is my Savior and Lord.
- I regard the Bible as the authoritative guide to my faith and life.
- I am a member or actively pursuing membership at Blainsport.
- I will strive for a balance within my Life Group of prayer, study and fellowship.
- CONFIDENTIALITY: I understand that anything of a personal nature (apart from abuse) that is said in my Life Group will never be repeated outside the group.
- I will attend Life Group leaders' meetings to the best of my ability.
- I will strive to identify and develop future Life Group leaders within my group.
- I will encourage participation among the members of my Life Group, respecting everyone's questions and opinions.
- I will tap into the spiritual gifts of other members of my Life Group to delegate needed responsibilities (examples: hosting, snacks, communication, childcare, etc.).
